Comments and Ideas

Class: Dosbarth Ffrisia

- You can ask a grown up or a teacher about being safe online - Charlotte
- We can be safe on the I pads by not putting scary stuff on- Bryher
- Getting adults to be safe - Toby

Class: Dosbarth Lafant

- Miss Dale agrees with the unanimous decision!
- Ruby 'People might dress up to trick you!'

Class: Dosbarth Fioled

- if someone tries to log on to someone else's account, they miss a break

Class: Dosbarth Blodyn Haul

- Make a poster with a QR code that links to a song that promotes online safety, maybe involve orchestra.
- We liked all the ideas and think they would all work really well.
- Involve the community and friends of the school by displaying posters around the area.
- Newsletter/newspaper about online safety
- Create an online safety action group
- Action group to deliver online safety lessons and activities to other classes
- Create an online safety website and make a QR link to it
- Make a play/video showing a scenario about online safety
- PC Ellis visiting school more often to deliver online safety lessons
- Promoting online safety during CodeFest'24 through lessons, badge making, poster making, Minecraft signs, book
- Poster competition for online safety
- Recap what SMART means and add them to log in cards
- Design a Scratch game promoting online safety in CodeFest
- Class topics about online safety
- Response form to report online problems
- Create a class contract for online safety and using devices appropriately

Class: Dosbarth Briallen

- More talks from PC Ellis

Class: Dosbarth Llygad y Dydd

- After discussion, it was found that year 6s would prefer not to tell someone they are being bullied. They don't like the thought of 'snitching' on someone. We need to work on speaking out and getting help.
